Tanzania's newborn baby has been admitted to LNJP Hospital

Concerns about Omicron are growing. The capital, Delhi, is in a state of panic. The first case of 'Omicron' infection in Delhi. A new variant in the body of a young Tanzanian returnee. Adding to this, the number of Omikran infections in India has risen to five. The victim was taken to LNJP Hospital.

Earlier on Saturday, a young man from Mumbai's Kalyan area was attacked by Omikran. One person from Jamnagar, Gujarat, and one from Karnataka in less than three days were diagnosed with OMC. So that no one else is affected.

Odia latest News – Get the latest breaking news and videos directly from Odishan news channels and leading local newspapers.